mysterious you

Dove award nominated songwriter, talented vocalist, and passionate worshipper, Audrey Hatcher Woodhams offers music and a testimony that God has used to move in the hearts of many nation-wide and around the world.

Audrey is best known for "All My Praise," a song she penned in an honest moment of prayer. Recorded by Dove Award winning trio, Selah, "All My Praise" spent five weeks at Number 1 on Inspirational Charts and climbed to the Top 10 on Adult Contemporary charts. The song - also included in the compilation, WOW 2006: 30 of the Year's Top Christian Artists and Hits - further earned this Virginia native a nod at the 2006 Gospel Music Association Dove Awards for Best Inspirational Song of the Year.

Come to one of Audrey's concerts and expect to be impressed with her talent and moved by the truth and insight of her lyrics. Expect to dance a little in your seat to the upbeat acoustic guitar numbers and to have a few good laughs from the onstage banter between Audrey and her long time friend/guitar player, Ginger Ludlow. Best of all, expect a tone of worship as she offers everyone the opportunity to sing along. You can hear a pin drop as Audrey offers her testimony: "I often feel very small," she confesses. "I'm a small girl from a small farm in a small town, Powhatan, VA...you don't even know where that is, do you?" she says with a laugh. "But God has taken the small moments of my life and made big things out of them. He can do that with all of us. We should never underestimate the power of what He can do in the small places."

Audrey's newest offering, Mysterious You, continues her tradition of insightful lyrics, distinct vocals and passion for a powerful God. Presented in her signature acoustic folk/rock sound, produced by Stephen Leiweke (Erin O'Donnell, Plumb, Joel Engle, Spin Worship), Mysterious You features live show hits "Liars and Thieves" and "I Hear You" as well as new favorites "Spirit Move" and "Oh Jesus." Regarding these latest tracks Audrey says, "Every song is God-ward, worshiping Him, learning to trust and believe His love even in the midst of His mysteriousness. I hope that when people hear them they are uplifted and want to move closer to Him."

response:

"...a musical journey that moves the heart and engages the mind."

-Cheryl Glenn; co-founder and minister, The Living Room Coffeehouse, Mt. Vernon, IL

"...one of the most talented people I have ever met."

-Rev. Brian Hughes; Senior Pastor, Powhatan Community Church, Powhatan, VA

"Great songs. Great voice. I've seen Audrey mesmerize an audience in a coffeehouse. She's led youth worship with humility and anointing. She's a speaker with poise and insight. I highly recommend her."

-Rob Still; Youth Pastor, Belmont Church, Nashville, TN

"...a rare find. Not only does her talent make a way for her, but she is as much a disciple as an artist. I most heartily recommend her."

-David Durham; Founder & Executive Director, Crucible International, Nashville, TN

"...Audrey and Ginger are two amazing people. My church was truly blessed."

-Trinity Martin; Music Minister, Sedge Garden UMC, Kernersville, NC

"...a broad appeal to our church members, college, youth and the local community."

-Keith Reel; The Cornerstone Church, Bourbonnais, IL
